The Vicar writes

I tried my best to speak some Italian while in Rome for a few days. In a way that many people will I'm sure recognize, as soon as my English accent was detected most people switched into English realising- correctly- that the conversation was going to go far more smoothly that way. But I persevered. I managed to ask directions and buy a toy car successfully, but on the other hand I was completely unable to get my desired flavour of ice cream in a gelateria! Even learning just a few words of another tongue is a good experience. I think that trying to speak in someone else's language, even if one stumbles and fails more often than not, is a wonderful way of connecting with people from other countries and cultures.

And so it doesn't seem to me arbitrary that in the story of Pentecost in the Bible we see the apostles being able to speak in other languages. That one day, that occasion on which the Holy Spirit first came and kickstarted the church, we read that everyone heard the apostles speaking in their own language. The barriers of language were, for a moment, overcome: a sign that these barriers of language and tribe and nation are as nothing compared to the unity that the Spirit brings. The apostles were to carry on what Jesus had begun: preaching the good news of God's love and forgiveness, making his presence known. But they were to do this, not in a small geographical area, as Jesus had done. The church was to spread across the whole world, into every culture and language.

The miracle we read about happening on that one Pentecost is repeated in our own day every time the love of God is communicated in thousands of languages across the globe, every time the Bible is read in a new language, and people come to see that God is speaking not only to others, but also to them.

The Holy Spirit is as present now as he was at Pentecost. When we are at a loss for words, perhaps trying to comfort

IN CHURCH THIS JUNE

Pentecost is the birthday of the church! This year Pentecost, or Whitsun, falls on Sunday 4 June. It is one of the three great festivals along with Christmas and Easter, in which we recall the coming of the Holy Spirit upon Jesus's disciples after he had ascended to heaven. Moved by the Spirit they resolved to carry on Jesus' work- and we try to do the same two thousand years on. Services are a quiet and contemplative 8am Holy Communion, then a celebratory 9:30am Sung Eucharist with choral music and children's hour. It's followed by refreshments in church, and we hope that some will stay after the 9:30, and others will arrive early for Praise@11 to share some fellowship together. Soon after 11am we will start our all-age service, Praise@11, continuing with the theme of Pentecost. All are most welcome!

Saturday 10 June is our annual piano concert. Several pianos will be in church for duets, trios, and more. This is always a popular recital and will start at 7:30pm. Tickets are £7 on the door, £1 for under 16s, or £6 if you buy online in advance: link via our website or Facebook to the Eventbrite site.

Trinity Sunday is on Sunday 11 June. A good number of candidates from St Mary's will be confirmed this morning by the Bishop of Guildford at Christ Church, Epsom Common. Meanwhile, back at St Mary's, after our usual 8am and 9:30am services there will be Choral Mattins at 11:15am. This service lasts forty minutes or so, with bible readings and Anglican choral music sung by the parish choir. Then in the evening, our inclusive all-age service for everyone, All-in, begins at 5pm. It's followed at 6pm by Club Sandwich, our youth group for 7-11s which begins with sandwiches and ends after games at 6.45pm.

On Sunday 18 June, after 8am and 9:30am our monthly service especially for toddlers and their families, Toddle Up!, is at 11am. Then at 5:30pm, Choral Evensong observes Corpus Christi Sunday. Traditional Evensong will end with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, a chance for us to reflect on the gift of the Eucharist outside of a communion service. There will again be refreshments served in church after Evensong to make this festival.

On Tuesday 20 June, our monthly bereavement café meets in the church hall (just opposite church), 2:45pm-3:45pm. No need to book, just turn up. It is open to everyone, not just widows or widowers, but anyone who would like to talk about their experiences around bereavement in a relaxed cafe atmosphere.

There is a lot going on over Midsummer weekend! On Saturday 24 June, you are invited to a garden party in the Vicarage garden, 2:30pm-4:30pm. Tickets (£5) are available after services or from the parish office. Then on Sunday 25 June services are 8am Holy Communion, 9:30am Sung Eucharist, and 11:15am Morning Prayer with Holy Baptism. In the afternoon, Churches Together in Ewell is putting on a free family event in Bourne Hall gardens called HOPE (2-5pm). There will be all kinds of activities, music, and stalls, all free. St Mary's is going to put on a garden games stall, e.g. skittles, giant Connect 4, that kind of thing. It should be great fun. Please get in touch with me if you might be able to spare a little time that afternoon to take a shift running one of the games (very very easy games, full tuition would be given). It would be something a whole family could do together

ARTHUR MATHEWS

14 June 1937 – 24 March 2017

Arthur Mathews was born and brought up in Folkestone. On the whole he had a happy childhood, but as he grew older he found school life rather boring as it did not present him with enough of the right kind of challenges. He left as soon as he could to make his own way in the world. At the time, his father worked in the ticket office at Folkestone station, so he decided to apply for a job with British Rail. He wrote around thirty letters of application before they finally offered him a job in the parcel office.

At the age of 18 he was called up for National Service and spent 2 years in Cyprus. On his return he went back to work for British Rail. From then on he never looked back, steadily progressing upwards to become an Area Manager, with 77 stations, two and half thousand employees and a large budget. On the way up he made headlines, when at the age of 21 he became the youngest Station Master in British Rail. He retired when British Rail was privatised in the 1990s

Arthur had two very happy marriages. In 1973, he married Jo, who sadly died after a long illness in 2002. They had a daughter Kelly, who was "The Apple of his Eye", and later on, she gave him his only beloved grandchild Keira.

In 2005 he married Julia, giving her a new lease of life after the loss of her first husband in 2002. Arthur proved to be the most loving and caring of husbands, and they had a wonderful life together for close on twelve years.

Arthur loved life and he was determined to make the most of every minute. He enjoyed being with people, doing things with them and for them. He once said to a medical consultant "I haven't got time to die - I have got too much to do". He was always someone who wanted to get on and get things done. One of his many skills and interests was playing the organ. When he became a member of St Mary's and learnt of our Father Willis organ, he took this great machine under his wing, working with our Director of Music to oversee its maintenance, repair and improvement. He did much of the organization of our organ recitals, and did a great deal of fundraising on his own behalf. Just in the past year, despite everything else he had to deal with, he raised over £3000 - and similar, if not greater, feats were achieved every year of his organ curatorship. It is estimated that Arthur saved St Mary's more than £70,000 for organ repairs and maintenance over the last 10 years. In his address at the service in celebration of Arthur's life, the Revd. Russell Dewhurst said "to those looking for a monument to Arthur, I would say, si monumentum quaeritis, audite! If you seek a monument, listen!".

Arthur soon became chair of Pro Musica, the committee which oversees music at St Mary's. When the idea was raised of a volunteer choir to sing at baptisms, Arthur ran with the idea, soon had the stalls filled with singers dressed in new robes, their music folders arranged and filled and Director of Music Jonathan Holmes booked for twice monthly rehearsals. It seemed like it happened overnight.

For many years Arthur was a well-respected toastmaster, presiding over weddings, ladies' nights and other social events. He also ran all kinds of events himself, raising large sums of money for the organ and the many other causes he was passionate about. Every year, he held a "Garden Party" in his own house and garden - seventy plus people for a BBQ or alfresco dining. Many of those who came along to enjoy the afternoon used to say that it was the event of the year. Arthur's cooking was legendary. At concerts the canapés and delicacies that he provided to audiences were just as eagerly anticipated as the music.

Arthur was a Freemason for more than 50 years and held senior rank. He was awarded Grand Rank in 1996, and he was promoted in 2012 to Past Junior Grand Deacon, a reflection on his continuing contribution to Freemasonry. Arthur also achieved London Grand Rank and the Certificate for Distinguished Service within the Province of Surrey. Over the years he enhanced the meetings of a considerable number of lodges with his organ playing. Another of his many talents was the supply, alteration and repair of masonic regalia. A quick telephone call was all that was necessary, he never forgot what was needed, or when it was needed.

There is no doubt that Arthur loved people and people loved Arthur. His sense of humour and love of life will be sadly missed. He most certainly lived respected and died very much regretted.

An article about Arthur and the Father Willis organ is planned for July EPN.

SUGGESTED PRAYERS

Father, forgive the cold love of the years,
As here in the silence we bow.
Perish our cowardice, perish our fears!
Kindle us, kindle us now.

Lord, we accept, we believe, we adore,
Less than the least though we be.
Fire of love, burn in us, burn evermore,
Till we burn out for Thee.

O for a passionate passion for souls,
O for a pity that yearns,
O for a love that loves unto death,
O for a fire that burns.

O for the pure prayer-power that prevails,
That pours itself out for the lost,
Victorious prayer in the Conqueror's name
The Lord of Pentecost.

Amy Wilson Carmichael of South India

A GENERAL THANKSGIVING

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we Thine unworthy servants do give Thee most humble and hearty thanks for all Thy goodness and loving-kindness to us, and to all men. We bless Thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all, for Thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we beseech Thee, give us that due sense of all Thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we show forth Thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up ourselves to Thy service, and by walking before Thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom with Thee and the Holy Spirit be all honour and glory, world without end, Amen.

Book of Common Prayer

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S PRAYER

Almighty God: we make our earnest prayer that Thou wilt keep the United States in Thy holy protection: that Thou wilt incline the hearts of the citizens to cultivate a spirit of subordination and obedience to government; and entertain a brotherly affection and love for one another and for their fellow citizens of the United States at large; and finally that Thou wilt most graciously be pleased to dispose us all to do justice, to love mercy and to demean ourselves with that charity, humility and pacific temper of mind which were the characteristics of the Divine Author of our blessed religion, and without a humble imitation of Whose example in these things we can never hope to be a happy nation. Grant our supplication, we beseech Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

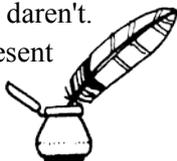

FACTS AND FIGURES

Statesmen deal in facts and the future. Politicians deal in feelings and the past. Lincoln and Churchill stand out. Both came into history after Jesus Christ. Their aim was freedom for their people. Christ's aim is freedom for everybody, freedom to do good or evil. Christ offers the peace which follows good action and salvation from the consequences of evil action.

Politicians present facts to suit feelings. Family members do it in the home. Business people do it much of the time. Gardeners can't. Weather forecasters daren't.

What about you and me? How do we present things?

Whatever way we do it God loves us.

PERSEVERING ALONG THE PENNINE WAY

The Pennines run like a spine through the length of Great Britain from Derbyshire to Scotland. Not noted for benign weather, the 268 mile long Pennine Way presents many challenges in the form of steep hills, 432 stiles, bogs, and desolate moors as well as lots of rain, mist, cold and wind. One of the first long distance paths in the UK, the tales of those who have tackled it verge on the scary. A friend of ours came upon a girl all alone stuck up to her waist in a bog. She had been there several hours. They pulled her out –minus her boots. We did not experience anything quite as bizarre but we did have a few adventures. Come to the Coffee Morning on 14 June to find out how two old age pensioners coped with this long distance footpath.

FINANCIAL SUMMARY FIRST THREE MONTHS 2017

The deficit for the first quarter is £2,028 less than the budget and £3,178 less than the previous year which is an encouraging start to the year.

Income is £1,146 higher than budgeted and £3,815 higher than last year. Both due to increases in voluntary income. This shows the results from the 2016 "Giving to support St Mary's campaign" now coming through.

Expenditure is £882 less than budget. There are a number of ups and downs but nothing material to report at this stage. Expenditure is £637 higher than last year with £594 due to an increase in the amount payable to the diocese, known as the parish share.

The above figures exclude any monies spent on capital projects which are being funded from gifts (large one-off donation and legacies) received in 2016. £968 has been spent in the first quarter on capital projects.

The Vicar and the PCC again extend their thanks to you all, for your ongoing support to St Mary's.

NICHOLAS ALLSOPP OUR NEW CHURCH WARDEN

Nicholas, Janet and Jonny Allsopp used to attend church at St Mary's Stoke D'Abernon, but after Jonny developed a passion for organ playing he applied for a scholarship at St Mary's Ewell. However, as the family had no intentions of going separate ways on Sundays they all started coming to St Mary's Ewell for a Sunday morning service. They immediately felt very much at home and have now been at St. Mary's for six years, even after Jonny moved on to Hereford Cathedral after two years and then on to Durham University and Cathedral.

Nicholas and Janet assist as sidesmen, Janet helps with the Toddlers group on Thursdays and Nicholas acts as MC, acolyte and reader as and when required, as well as being on the PCC for most of his time at St Mary's, which now looks likely not to end any time soon. He also was responsible for events at Ewell Village Fair for two years and assists at the various recitals we have over the course of the year.

Nicholas and Janet live with their dog Alfie in Givons Grove and Nicholas works full time for a property development company based on the edge of Richmond Park. They also have another son Nick, who lives in Barnes and attends church at St Michael's Chester Square.

VISITATION OF THE CHURCHWARDENS BY THE ARCHDEACON OF DORKING

Nicholas and Janet Allsopp, Valerie Wood and Kathie Burgess attended St. Mary and St. Nicholas church in Leatherhead on Thursday 11 May during which Nicholas and Valerie were admitted as Churchwardens for St. Mary's for the next year. Kathie, our retiring churchwarden, is now supporting Valerie and Nicholas as Deputy Churchwarden.

The church was full of new and existing Churchwardens together with their families and friends from the Epsom Deanery and beyond, who together enjoyed a service led by the Vicar of Leatherhead and the Archdeacon of Dorking.

The admission was presided over by Ian Blaney, the Deputy Diocesan Registrar, who is also the church solicitor for St Mary's and it was really enjoyable to be able to meet and speak with him in person for the first time.

Later in the service followed the Commission and Blessing, which was as follows:

As part of God's Church in the Diocese of Guildford I call upon you to live out what you proclaim.

Empowered by the Holy Spirit, will you dare to walk in God's future, trusting Him to be your guide?

Will you dare to embrace each other and grow together in love?

Will you dare to share your riches in common and minister to each other in need?

Will you dare to pray for each other until your hearts beat with the longings of God?

Will you dare to carry the light of Christ into the world's dark places?

To all of the above the answer was "We will".

GRAND DRAW TICKETS

Preparations for the annual Ewell Village Fair are well under way and you will have received two books of Grand Draw tickets with your May edition of the Ewell Parish News in the hope that it will be possible for you to sell some on our behalf.

The draw will take place at the Village Fair on Saturday 15 July and, if possible, cash and counterfoils should be returned by the 8 July to either your EPN distributor, direct to the promoter (name and address are on the tickets) or placed in the 'blue box' at the back of the Church.

We understand that not everyone will feel able to buy or sell tickets but we will be most grateful if you can help with this fund raising project.
