

‘Travelling light’
led by
The Reverend Barry Preece

18th to 20th October 2013
at St Cuthman's,
Coolham, near Horsham
RH13 8QL

Why go on a retreat?

Nowadays most of us are too busy reacting to this or that pressure in the home or workplace to listen to God or to ourselves. We live at a running pace, trying to fit in all the things we want to do, or feel we ought to do.

A retreat is an opportunity to find some quiet and space, to spend time reflecting, praying, reading, walking or resting.

Who is Barry Preece?

Barry was Assistant Curate at St Mary's, Ewell in the early 1970s, and then became Vicar at St Mary's, Cuddington. Barry has a special gift for leading meditations and retreats. He uses words, silence, music, art and photography to draw people closer to God. For several years Barry was the Diocesan Advisor on Spirituality. Most recently, until January this year when he retired, Barry was Rector of East and West Clandon.

What is the cost?

The cost of the whole weekend is £160 for each person. This includes hotel standard accommodation, coffee and tea and three meals during the day, and Barry's accommodation and expenses. The weekend will last from early Friday evening until after lunch on Sunday. If you are going to arrive late on Friday, let us know and a meal will be saved for you.

To find out if a place on the retreat is available, contact Arthur Mathews – telephone on 020 8337 2160 or e-mail at treasurer@stmarysewell.com

Where is St Cuthman's?

Just south of Horsham. Go straight down the A24 and right along the A272 towards Coolham for about two miles. We hope to match up people who need a lift with those who can offer one.
