The Vicar writes

One of the privileges and duties of St Mary's is custodianship of the extensive churchyards around the church. The churchyards are the resting place for centuries of Ewell residents, dating to well before even the oldest monuments. There are of course many recent graves, most with monuments, and some of these are frequently visited. Maintaining the churchyard in an appropriate, dignified, and respectful way is of course a top priority for our church.

I have written before in these pages about our plans to improve car parking at St Mary's. Those attending services, church activities, and perhaps especially those visiting the churchyard (because they often come much longer distances) can find the difficulty in parking very troublesome. I have been very sad to receive letters on occasion from people who have been unable to visit family graves because they have been unable to walk the distance from a nearby car park and haven't been able to park nearby. The area we have identified, near the junction of Church Street and London Road, would have the minimum disruption of visitors to the churchyard, graves, and trees. We hope soon to seek planning pre-application advice on this project. I am sure that it will be of great benefit to the church and churchyard and those who visit both.

Last month I wrote that I had been paying more attention to the birdsong as I walk through the churchyard. This has brought into my mind the fact the our churchyard is an important green space for a great deal of flora and fauna, and I started to wonder what we could do to help wildlife in the churchyard. Although we are blessed with so many wonderful parks around Ewell, I think that the area around the church is of local ecological importance. I met with Tim Tomkins, chairman of the local RSPB branch and a

SUNDAY AT ST MARY'S

0800 HOLY COMMUNION

0930 SUNG EUCHARIST

The Sunday School meets in conjunction with this service in term time. There is coffee in the church hall between the 9.30 and 11 o'clock services on Sunday mornings, to which all are welcome, and especially newcomers and visitors.

LATE MORNING SERVICE varies by Sunday in the month

The usual pattern is our all-age Praise@11 on the first Sunday at 11am; 11.15am Choral Mattins on the second Sunday; 11am Toddle Up, a short and very informal service for toddlers and their families on the third Sunday; and 11.15am Morning Prayer with Holy Baptism on the fourth Sunday. The pattern changes on special occasions: see the calendar on the back page for details of this month.

1700 Second Sunday of the month ALL-IN An inclusive all-age service with something for everyone. Followed at 6pm-6:45pm by Club Sandwich, a youth group for 7-11s.

1730 Once a month CHORAL EVENSONG Just like a cathedral Evensong in our own parish church. Usually the third Sunday but see the calendar on the back page for details.

Occasionally there are variations from this pattern; details are given in this paper, on the Notice Board or in the Weekly Notes available on Sundays.

ON WEEKDAYS

Morning prayer is usually said at 9 am Tuesdays, in church. See the Weekly Notes or phone ahead to make sure. The Eucharist is celebrated on Tuesdays at 10 am, at the Side Chapel.

bass in our parish choir, and together we installed a nestbox in the churchyard as part of National Nest Box Week. We started to talk about other ideas, such as finding an out-of-the-way and unvisited corner away from graves for a woodpile or hedgehog house. I'm hoping that we might collect ideas together over the coming months. This year's Day for All (our annual open day) on 22 September is taking the theme "Creatures - great and small." That would seem like a good idea to present our ideas for the churchyard. For example, EPN readers might like to sponsor a nest box to be put up in the churchyard next winter. I am sure a few simple measures like this would be of great benefit to those creatures who make their home in our churchyards.

DATA PROTECTION

On 25 May 2018 significant new data protection law, the GDPR, will come into force. This is overall a good thing, as it will mean organizations will have to exercise greater responsibility in processing all of our personal data, and gain our consent for many purposes. But this also affects churches to a very great deal, and I am grateful to David Dance who is leading our project to ensure compliance by that date. There will be more details in next month's EPN, but in particular look out for consent forms in church and on our website. We will have to collect explicit, written, opt-in consent as a church in order to be able to contact you for many purposes. It is of course up to each individual to decide whether or not to give consent to any organization, but please bear in mind that without written consent the church may be unable to contact you. This will not affect delivery of EPN where you have asked for it, as we will be able to do that as part of fulfilling our contract to you without having to gain separate consent.

IN CHURCH IN APRIL

Easter Day is on Sunday 1 April. Our usual 8am and 9:30am Eucharists will be celebrated with appropriate festivity, and our all-age service at 11am, Praise@11, is followed by an Easter Egg hunt!

On Sunday 8 April we usually see lower congregations (the day is traditionally called "Low Sunday") but perhaps a few more will come along this year as the Revd Dr Patrick Miller is launching his book, "Dilemmas and Decisions" published by Brill, over refreshments in church at around 10.45am, i.e. after the 9.30 service. In the evening, our monthly all-age inclusive service "All-in" begins at 5pm, and it's followed at 6pm by Club Sandwich, for 7-11s.

Our parish choir is taking a trip to Portsmouth on Saturday 14 April. They will be singing Evensong in Portsmouth Cathedral at 5pm, and EPN readers and members of the congregation are particularly invited to come along and support them. Portsmouth makes a great day out, all the more so if rounded off with Evensong at the end of the day.

After our usual 8am and 9:30am services on Sunday 15 April, it's time for our monthly toddler service, Toddle Up!, at 11am.

Our Bereavement Café this month meets in the church hall (opposite church) at 2:45pm on Tuesday 17 April. It is open to everyone who would like to come and discuss experiences of bereavement in a relaxed, café-like atmosphere.

The parish Spring Dinner takes place on Saturday 21 April and tickets (£10 each) should still be available after services and from the office by the time you read this- but they do sell out, so act quickly! On Sunday 22 April, the 8am Holy Communion and 9:30am Sung Eucharist are followed at 11:15am by Morning Prayer and Holy Baptism, where the singing is led by St Mary's Singers.

The last Sunday of the month is Sunday 29 April, and after the 9.30 service we will hold the Meeting of Parishioners and Annual Parochial Church Meeting. The annual meeting is a chance to look back on what the church did last year, and think about plans for the year ahead, as well as to hold various elections. I encourage everyone to join the church's electoral roll. To do this you need to be baptized (i.e. christened) and either live in the parish or be a regular worshipper at St Mary's, and be over 16. This allows you to vote at the annual meeting (and any extraordinary meetings). You can download an electoral roll form from the church website or get one from the parish office or the welcome desk in church. To vote at this year's annual meeting you need to have returned the form by 12 April.

The PCC (Parochial Church Council) are the trustees of our church, and meet around 5 times a year, usually on a Monday evening, to discuss strategy and significant matters in the life of St Mary's. Some new members are elected each year at the annual meeting. The majority of PCC members at present usually attend the 8am or 9:30am services. The PCC and I are keen that we should recruit new PCC members especially from some of the congregations that are not as well represented. We are also keen to welcome those who are relatively new to St Mary's to bring new ideas and fresh perspectives to the Committee, and to have as wide a range of backgrounds and ages as possible. By the Church of England's rules, to be on the PCC you need to be over 16, on our electoral roll, and a communicant (i.e. you take Holy Communion). Please do consider it.

Your friend and Parish Priest

Russell Dewhurst

HELLO FROM KALLI

St Mary's Church is the heart of Ewell Village. It sees births, confirmations, weddings and funerals. People in their happiest moments and in their saddest too. It is comforting and supportive and a haven for many local residents.

Hello! I'm Kalli Pasqualucci; the new publicity and social media officer. I have lived in Ewell Village for almost 6 years, am a mother of two little boys, have been on the EVF committee for 3 years this year and I am a regular at Toddle Up!, Praise @ 11, All-in and Funday Wednesday.

I am passionate about developing St Mary's publicity and sharing the Church with the local community, while also boosting attendance at all of the services and events.

I have met so many lovely members of the Church recently and am looking forward to meeting many more of you in the months to come - I will be attending various services and events. If you see me, I'm usually taking photos, please come and say hello!

STOP PRESS

Just before going to print we heard about the possible closure of St Cuthmans, the venue for our Parish Retreat. We're making every effort find out more. In the meantime, please keep the dates 12 to 14 October in your diaries. Information will be put on the church website www.stmarysewell.com when we know more.

SUGGESTED PRAYERS

O Christ, help me to gather with you, and never to scatter what you have laid out.

Father, let me dedicate
All this life to thee
In whatever worldly state
Thou wilt have me be.
Let my glad heart, while it sings,
Thee in all proclaim,
And whate'er the future brings,
Glorify thy name.

George Appleton

Breathe on me, breath of God
Until my heart is pure
Until, with Thee, I will one will
To do and to endure.

Breathe on me, breath of God
Till I am wholly Thine,
Until this earthly part of me
Glow with Thy fire divine.

E. Hatch

Teach us to abide in the light of thy Eternity, in simplicity, in stillness and in peace: asking for nothing, seeking to understand nothing, but absorbed in that selfless adoration of thy
Glory, which is the heart of prayer.

Evelyn Underhill

Give us grace and strength to forbear and persevere.

Give us courage and gaiety and the quiet mind.

Spare to us our friends, soften to us our enemies.

Bless us if it may be in all our innocent endeavours.

If it may not, give us the strength to encounter that which is to come, that we may be brave in peril, constant in tribulation, temperate in wrath.

And in all changes of fortune and down to the gates of death

Loyal and loving to one another.

Robert Louis Stevenson

EAST MEETS WEST, EDITS EWELL PARISH NEWS, EXITS

In the March Ewell Parish News the Vicar announced that Lloyd and Prom Mullen had decided to retire from Editorship of the Ewell Parish News, which they had held through all of his time thus far in the parish 'and for some years before'. After exhaustive investigation (i. e. by asking Lloyd and Prom) it is apparent that the start date was 1991 - or some 27 years ago. Things were very different in 1991; Richard Hanford was about one third through his incumbency in Ewell, John Major was in his first year as Prime Minister and the Queen's "annus horribilis" was still to come.

Since then "through all the changing scenes of life, in trouble and in joy" Lloyd and Prom have, each month religiously, in every sense, seen to the production of our monthly magazine. A lot of their work as Editors has been simply hard graft - producing or editing articles that provide a mixed diet for readers in Ewell and its environs, and ensuring that copy-dates are fixed and adhered to. But Lloyd and Prom have gone far beyond these minimum requirements through their own contributions; Lloyd has each month produced an editorial that sets the Ewell scene in the wider international context of the Church and the Christian religion as these impinge on the everyday lives of us all. Prom has contributed articles and above all prayers and poems, for she is a writer and poet with many published credits to her name.

It is not difficult to discover the backgrounds to Lloyd's and Prom's lives which have for us come to fruition in their work on EPN. For in 2013 Lloyd published a 380 page memoir "A Long Way from Tipperary" while Prom has, among her many publications, given us a book of prose and poems entitled "I Give You My Word."

Lloyd was born and brought up with his twin sister as Anglicans in the Irish Province of Munster. He went to school in Tipperary and Waterford. After a long summer holiday in Europe, when he first became influenced by the Moral Rearmament movement, he became a schoolmaster in Ulster, and later in Devon. While in Ulster, he took an external degree at London University.

In 1959 he was recruited, through the British Council, for a teaching post in Pakistan. It was there that he met Promilla who, after taking a degree at Manchester, was in the Civil Service and acted as a reception point for foreign dignitaries visiting Pakistan.

They returned to England for Lloyd to undertake through the British Council a course at Manchester University on teaching English to foreign students. During this time their daughter, Cherry, was born. The course led to three years working in London, followed by British Council postings to South India, Sri Lanka and Pakistan. In 1980 Lloyd and Prom returned to England, purchased their house in Ewell and joined St. Mary's. There followed a final role in Uganda before Lloyd's retirement and their permanent residence in Ewell. This rather breathless resumé will enable the perceptive reader to envisage how their varied experiences have fed through into their active retirement and their editorship of EPN - to the benefit of us all.

Prom has given us, at the end of her book, her own summary of her life- typically brief and to the point. "Promilla was born and chiefly educated in the Himalayan mountains and later in the Punjab and Manchester Universities. She married an Irish British Council Officer with whom she travelled widely. She has always been a prolific writer and has produced and acted in plays in many countries. Now settled in Ewell, Surrey, her love is for classical music, puzzles, gardening, giving parties and enjoying the community life of her parish church. She has a daughter and two lovely grandchildren."

It is always wise to let a lady have the last word! With renewed thanks to Prom and Lloyd for giving us the EPN since 1991.

Women's World Day of Prayer Service

The challenge!

Despite the temperature being below freezing and the wind blowing the lying snow around, 45 people at St Mary's warmed to the Women's World Day of Prayer service held at the beginning of March.

The service, attended by both women and men including the Deputy Mayor, Cllr Neil Dallen and the Deputy Mayor-ess, Mrs. Ann Dallen, heard how the population of Suriname was formed. This small country on the northeast coast of South American has been populated over the years by people from a number of different countries around the world as well as its own indigenous tribes. This included immigrants from China, France, the Netherlands as well as slaves from West African and Indonesian indentured labourers.

The service entitled, All God's Creation is Very Good! based on Genesis chapter 1, was inspiring and thought provoking. This service was replicated by churches of many denominations not only in Britain but in 170 countries around the world.

At our service at St Mary's, seven women from different churches in the Ewell Area, dressed to represent the variety of Suriname's population. They told of the diverse riches of Suriname's natural resources, its plants, birds and animals as well as the lives of the Suriname women and their hopes and fears for their country. Contamination of rivers and deforestation for mining of gold and bauxite are endangering the environment and destroying the habitat of people and animals alike.

We were challenged to think about our own environment and how each one of us can improve where we live by being personally more responsible for recycling and for minimising waste.

Following the service, we were invited to have hot drinks and refreshments which were much appreciated on such a cold day. The local WWDP committee wish to thank everyone who helped to make the service possible under such challenging conditions.

'FILM NIGHT' and VIERNE

Jonathan Holmes

Organ recital, Saturday 24 February

Let me begin with a confession. I have never seen the film 'Jaws'. Not being particularly enamoured of science fiction, I have never seen 'Star Wars' either, nor 'Close Encounters of the Third Kind', nor 'ET'. On the other hand, I have seen 'Raiders of the Lost Ark'.

What all these films have in common is that their music scores were composed by John Williams (born 1932). Tracks from the movies listed above formed part of tonight's concert and demonstrated once again the degree of orchestral 'colour' of which Ewell's 'Father' Willis organ is capable.

The audience hugely enjoyed a screening of a Buster Keaton silent movie. It was "One Week", in which Keaton is joined by actress Sybil Sealey. It is about a newly-married couple and their disastrous kit-built house. Jonathan played a soundtrack based on authentic 1920s theatre organ music scores.

The second half was dominated by one work, Symphony No. 5 by the French composer Louis Vierne. Unlike most classical symphonies one thinks of – those by Haydn, for example, or Mozart – which have four movements, this piece has five. Although intended for the organ at the prestigious Cathedral of Notre Dame in Paris, our Willis organ at Ewell does equal justice to the music. The first movement is headed 'Grave' which means slow and solemn. The second movement is fast. After this, a 'scherzo' (Italian for joke) – but a strange and rather sinister sort of joke. I was strongly reminded of Dukas's famous orchestral showpiece 'The Sorcerer's Apprentice'; but for the composer, apparently, it was the mediaeval gargoyles at Notre-Dame Cathedral that were at the back of his mind. The fourth movement is marked 'Larghetto', slow. The last movement, which is in the tonic major key of A, is simply headed 'Final'. In fact, it is both a toccata (with all the brilliance that word implies) and traditional sonata-form allegro. In his programme notes, Jonathan describes in detail the similarities between the 'oeuvre' of John Williams and that of Vierne. One would have thought them miles apart; after all, neither man knew the other: Vierne died when Williams was a boy, and, owing to problems with his sight, it is unlikely Vierne ever saw the Buster Keaton movies. But Williams writes music in the tradition of earlier Hollywood composers such as Max Steiner and Erich Wolfgang Korngold, and behind them stands the figure of Wagner and his development of opera into symphonically-conceived Music Dramas (his own term). As a young man Vierne studied composition with César Franck who himself worked tirelessly at a particular compositional technique called 'cyclical transformation' – derived from Wagner and ultimately, Beethoven. The young Vierne developed this cyclical form in his music too, and took it to its apogee in the Fifth Symphony.

Jonathan's encore came as a complete contrast: the andante sostenuto movement from Widor's 'Symphonie Gothique'. After all the forgoing brilliance, the sound of a simple harmonic flute stop led to a quiet and reflective conclusion.

SPRING MARKET

This event will take place on Saturday 12 May from 10.00 – 12 noon. The ever popular Plants and Cakes stalls need stocking so if your green fingers can raise a few plants and your expertise in the kitchen can produce a cake or two we would be delighted. There will also be a book stall and a bric-a-brac stall so clear out your cupboards and thin out your bookshelves!!

There will be a raffle – for which any donations will be gratefully received – and Grand Draw tickets for the Summer Fair will be on sale.

Refreshments will be served throughout the morning so please come along with your family and friends to enjoy this social occasion. Admission is Free

All proceeds from this event are put towards the running expenses of the Ewell Village Fair which will be held on 14 July in the grounds of Ewell Castle School, Glyn House.

Non-perishable contributions for the stalls can be left in church from Sunday 6 May and any other items for sale can be brought to the Church Hall between 6.30 and 8pm on Friday 11 May or from 8.30am on the day. Alternatively a list of stallholders is shown below to enable specific arrangements to be made.

Eggs in chocolate, crisp and hollow,
Wrapped in silver paper tight,
Easter taste and Easter newness
Come with spring and sunshine bright.

Eggs are given, eggs are hidden,
Brought by rabbits or by bells;

We are alive today!
 Jesus is alive today!
 Thank you, God
 Amen.

He is not here;
 he is risen!

Did you know?...

- Fish lay a lot more eggs than birds
- Chicken eggs take about 21 days to hatch
- An ostrich lays the largest eggs – between 15 and 20cm long
- The biggest dinosaur eggs ever found would have been about 30cm long when they were whole. An empty shell that size would hold more than 3 litres of water!
